

Did you know?

- Students who participate in arts programs consistently outperform their peers on the math and verbal sections of the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT).
- Just 15 minutes of music instruction per week dramatically improves a preschooler's ability to learn math and science.
- Students in arts programs scored 30 percent higher in basic academic skills testing than students who were not enrolled in such programs, and they also demonstrated greater creativity and superior communications skills.
- Arts programs can jumpstart a child's learning, especially if started at an early age, and can help overcome the cycle of poverty, school dropouts and crime.
- The arts can provide poor-performing students with an opportunity for success and recognition.
- Arts programs can instill positive values in today's children and youth, nurturing community pride, teamwork, and respect for different cultures.
- Early music training can enhance a child's ability to reason and think critically.

CAMP INFORMATION

ELEMENTARY MUSIC CAMP Fun! Fun! FUN!!

Elementary Music Camp is for campers entering grades 1 through 3 who are looking for a fun musical experience. They will have instruction in Off instruments, recorders, keyboard, singing, dance, percussion & more!

BAND CAMP

Band Camp is for campers in grades 4 through 10 with a love of making music, regardless of their previous musical experience.

All campers participating in Band Camp will receive small group and large ensemble instruction. Campers will also have a choice of electives which may include art, chamber ensembles, jazz band, jazz improv, conducting, music theory & composition, introduction to marching band basics, drumline, color guard, and Broadway vocal lab.

BEGINNING BAND CAMP No Instrument? No Experience? No Problem!

The Beginning Band Camp is intended for campers with little or no experience in band or music.

Campers in the beginning band will choose an instrument on the first day and will be playing it by the end of the day! At the end of camp, the beginning campers will perform in their first concert.

ADVANCED BAND CAMP

The Advanced Band Camp is for campers with at least one year of playing experience.

Campers will participate in a concert band, technique classes, sectionals, master classes, and other classes which will help develop their musical skills.

DON'T FORGET THE FRIENDS & FAMILY CONCERT
ON JUNE 27th AT 6:30 p.m.
